

HIV

PechaKucha

20 X 20

IMAGES SECONDS

An evening of dynamic presentations on HIV to share research findings with the broader community; foster conversation between students, academics and stakeholders; and demonstrate the value of combining scientific and arts/humanities approaches to complex issues.

Refreshments will be provided.

400 West Rich Street, Monday April 23, 6-9pm